Transportation from Düsseldorf Airport to the Central Train Station of the City of Duisburg

Düsseldorf Airport is the closest alternative to Duisburg. Easiest means of transportation from this airport would be taking the train. To be able to take the train, you'll need to go to the airport train station from the arrival terminals with the airport shuttle-„sky train“ first, which is free of charge. At the airport train station, you'll need to buy your train ticket either from Deutsche Bahn ticket machines or Deutsche Bahn Travel Center (Opening hours: Monday-Friday 07.00-21.00, Saturday 07.30 - 20.00, Sunday 10.00 - 14.30 & 15.00 - 18.30; in case if you arrive at a time on which the travel center doesn't work, you'll need to buy your ticket from the machines). There are 6 trains per hour and it takes only 10 minutes. Make sure to check the platform on which you're supposed to take the train until Duisburg Central Station (Duisburg Hauptbahnhof) from the boards at the airport railway station. If it's likely that you'll have mobile internet in Germany, download the Deutsche Bahn Navigator App that would help you with all the necessary information:
